

Broadening

HORIZONS

A part of the ICE 2017 event

A FREE, lively, interactive and informative day

Showcasing inclusion

this event is for people with learning disabilities or autism, families and professionals who want to move their lives forward and contribute to making a positive difference to community involvement, employment & volunteering opportunities for people with learning disabilities and/or autism

20th September at Butlin's Skegness

This year's highlights include ~

Micro Enterprise

A positive solution to achieving employment

Paul Scott - Experience Enterprise Ltd

An overview of micro enterprise—Paul has supported many start up businesses including micros enterprise

Andy Green - Lyke Ltd

Andy has set up his own company specializing in websites and bespoke digital solutions

Sian Hutchings

Sian runs her own successful photography business

This year's highlights ~

Technology in Increasing Independence

Lorraine Munroe & Julie White - Linkage

The practical use of Assistive Technology

Sharing the early outcome of the pilot scheme, Vit—Alert, operated by Linkage, as to how Assistive Technology enables clients to experience a creative and personalised approach to their care that promotes and maintains their independence and well being

Every—One - Using Technology to do something differently

With an interactive practical demonstration of GrandCare with 5 terminals

Personal Budgets

John Waters - In Control

How to be creative with your Personal Budget and benefit your life

And an introduction to POET - Personal Evaluation Tool

Adrian Whitter & Paul Nurse

Using a personal budgets to employ personal assistants for a unique and independent life

a

Housing & Support

Steve Harris of Reside Housing

Introducing the 8 ways to independent living

Janet Collins—parent

buying a home for our daughter Katie

Philip Williams

How independent living has changed my life

This year's highlights ~

Finding & Developing Social & Personal Relationships

Charmaine Richmond—Luv2meetU

Project Development worker for Luv2meetU - a friendship and dating agency for people with a learning disability and autism. Formerly Stars in the Sky Yorkshire, they have many years experience in supporting people to make friends, share interests and develop relationships.

Community Engagement

Donna Gravelling - Your Day Your Say

Providing quality, meaningful and fulfilling daytime opportunities which enable Individuals to make choices and develop independence

Supported by the Clients themselves

Paul Charles - Seagull Recycling (Eco Centre)

Providing services and training to businesses, individuals and the Community and Voluntary sector via environmental, sustainability and recycling/reuse activities, job skills, training and adult enrichment.

Where Butlin's, Roman Bank, Skegness PE25 1NJ

When Wednesday 20th September 2017

9-45am to 4-00pm

A light lunch will be provided

For any further information

Philip Burgess 07532 223209 email pburgessevents@btinternet.com

or for queries please contact